I wish to state here that I'm happy, at least some states, along with Florida are primed to hold Microsoft culpable for their actions, I very disappointed in Justice and the Administration, for again favoring big business over the interests of the general public. The Bush's involvement in the S/L bailout, now this, and next I'm sure no one at Enron, will be held accountable for their fleecing of the public. I would hope the Justice Department would be above partisan politics, but that is apparently a laughable desire with John Ashcroft in the lead. But, let's see if we can come up with a sex scandal that everyone can be happy about wasting everyone's time with.
